

Report on Documentary Screening on Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar

Date: 26 December 2025

The Department of History, in collaboration with the Department of Sociology, organized a documentary screening on “Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar” on 26th December 2025. The programme was conducted with the objective of familiarizing students with the life, ideas, and contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar towards social justice, constitutional values, and nation-building.

The programme was jointly coordinated under the leadership of Astt. Prof. Sharmila Nalwa, Head of the Department of History, and Astt. Prof. Lalit Kumar, Head of the Department of Sociology. Students and faculty members from both departments actively participated in the event.

The documentary highlighted Dr. Ambedkar’s early life, academic journey, struggle against social discrimination, his role as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution, and his lifelong commitment to equality, liberty, and fraternity. The visual presentation helped students gain a deeper and more meaningful understanding of his vision and reformist ideology.

After the screening, Astt. Prof. Sharmila Nalwa, HOD, Department of History, delivered a lecture on the life and legacy of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. In her address, she elaborated on Dr. Ambedkar’s historical significance, his contribution to democratic values, and the continued relevance of his ideas in contemporary Indian society. The lecture encouraged students to reflect critically on issues of social justice, constitutional morality, and inclusive development.

Overall, the documentary screening and lecture proved to be highly informative and inspiring, fulfilling its academic and social objectives successfully.
