1. Introduction

The Career Counselling and Placement Cell of Government Degree College Nankhari actively engages with professionals from diverse fields to provide students with practical exposure, industry insights, and guidance for their future careers. In continuation of this initiative, an interactive career counselling session was organised with Ms. Navita Verma, a seasoned professional with over 15 years of experience in Marketing and Sales. She has contributed to renowned corporate groups, including Abbot and DS Group, bringing valuable real-world experience to the students.

The session commenced with a formal introduction and warm welcome extended to the guest speaker and the dignitaries present. The day’s theme, “Shaping Your Personality for Workplace Success,” set the tone for a highly engaging and informative session.

2. Session Highlights

2.1 Understanding Corporate Expectations

Ms. Verma elaborated on the essential qualities required to enter and sustain in the corporate world. She emphasized:

- Personal grooming and professional presentation
- Confidence and communication
- Physical and mental agility
- Readiness to accept new challenges
- Teamwork orientation
- Leadership and decision-making abilities

She highlighted how these attributes significantly influence employability and long-term success in the corporate environment.

2.2 Recruitment Process and Interview Skills

The speaker provided a detailed overview of:

- The recruitment and selection process followed by major companies
- Screening procedures, group discussions, and interview rounds
- Core competencies evaluated during interviews
- Common mistakes made by freshers

- Tips to develop clarity, confidence, and conviction while presenting oneself

Students gained valuable insights into how they can prepare strategically to secure a good position in corporate organisations.

2.3 Pay Packages and Living Scenarios

Ms. Verma also discussed:

- Average entry-level packages in marketing, sales, and associated fields
- Expected salary range for beginners in Tier-1 and Tier-2 cities
- Cost of living differences in metropolitan cities
- Work culture and lifestyle adjustments required for corporate jobs

This practical knowledge helped students better understand the realities of corporate life.

2.4 Path to Growth in Corporate Careers

She guided students on how they can rise to senior positions by:

- Enhancing their overall personality
- Developing socio-personal and job-specific skills
- Engaging in continuous learning
- Building a professional network
- Setting clear long-term career goals

3. Interactive Session

A vibrant interaction followed, where students shared their aspirations and concerns with the resource person. Ms. Verma gave personalised advice addressing:

- Career choices
- Required qualifications
- Skill enhancement
- Job market opportunities
- Misconceptions about corporate job pressure

This one-on-one engagement added immense value to the session.

4. Address by Principal

The Principal of GDC Nankhari, Dr. P. P. Chauhan, also interacted with the participants, sharing his experience and insightful reflections on:

- The importance of developing a confident and appealing personality
- The role of perseverance and adaptability in career growth
- Setting realistic yet ambitious goals

His words further motivated the students to focus on self-development.

5. Student Feedback

Students expressed that the session was highly beneficial and motivating. Key points from their feedback include:

- “We got clarity about how recruitment in big companies actually works.”
- “The speaker explained job expectations very practically.”
- “Learning about salary structures and city-wise expenses was very helpful.”
- “The session boosted our confidence and cleared several doubts regarding corporate jobs.”
- “Personalised advice made the session more meaningful.”

Overall, students appreciated the realistic and experience-driven guidance provided.

6. Outcomes of the Session

The session resulted in several positive outcomes:

- Students gained awareness of essential corporate skills and personality traits.
