

Report on Awareness Session on “Financial Literacy”

Date: 20-02-2026

No. of Beneficiaries: 37

The Career Counselling and Placement Cell (CCPC) of Government Degree College Nankhari, in collaboration with the Department of Commerce, organized an awareness session on the topic “Financial Literacy” on 20th February 2026. The programme aimed to enhance students’ understanding of financial planning and responsible money management.

The keynote speaker for the session was Mr. Mehar Chand Chauhan, Assistant Manager, Cooperative Bank Nankhari, who delivered an insightful and practical lecture on the importance of financial literacy in today’s dynamic economic environment. He elaborated on key aspects such as budgeting, saving habits, investment opportunities, digital banking awareness, and the significance of responsible borrowing. His session provided students with real-life examples and practical guidance to help them make informed financial decisions and plan for a secure future.

Dr. Punita Verma, Head of the Department of Commerce, also addressed the students and shared valuable insights on the importance of financial awareness among youth, especially in developing disciplined saving and investment habits from an early stage.

All the teaching staff members were present during the session, reflecting the institution’s collective commitment towards students’ holistic development. The programme concluded with an informative address by Dr. Inder Singh Suryan, Convener of the Career Counselling and Placement Cell, who summarized the key points discussed and encouraged students to apply the knowledge gained in their daily lives.

The session proved to be highly interactive and beneficial, equipping students with essential financial skills necessary for personal and professional growth. The college extends its sincere gratitude to Mr. Chauhan for sparing his valuable time and delivering an enlightening session.
