

Event: Declamation Competition

Date: 10th March 2025

Venue: Room No. 4, GDC Nankhari

Organised by: Road Safety Club

Number of Participants: 09

Total Attendance: 54 Students

Introduction:

To sensitise students to the importance of civic responsibility during emergencies, the Road Safety Club of the Government. Degree College, Nankhari, organised a Declamation Competition on the topic “Good Samaritan and Golden Hour” on 10th March 2025. The event was designed to educate students about the legal, ethical, and medical aspects of responding to road accidents and other emergencies.

Objectives of the Event:

- To create awareness about the Good Samaritan Law and its legal protection for helpful bystanders.
- To emphasise the life-saving value of the Golden Hour in accident response.
- To encourage students to be confident and compassionate first responders.
- To enhance students' public speaking, critical thinking, and advocacy skills.
- To inspire a responsible and community-centered approach to emergency situations.

Event Description:

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various streams. Participants eloquently discussed the provisions of Section 134A of the Motor Vehicles Act, highlighting the legal shield available to citizens who assist accident victims. They underscored how timely action within the “Golden Hour” can save lives and prevent long-term trauma.

Many students enriched their speeches with real-life incidents, statistical data, and examples of successful interventions by Good Samaritans. Their performances demonstrated oratory skill and a deep emotional and social understanding of the issue.

Highlights and Results:

- The event sparked thoughtful dialogue on the role of common citizens in emergency response.
- Students demonstrated great research and presentation skills.
- Ronika (B.A. 2nd Year) was declared the winner for her compelling and articulate speech.

Key Takeaways:

- Greater awareness of the legal protections under the Good Samaritan Law.
- Understanding of the critical role of the Golden Hour in saving accident victims.
- Empowerment of students to act responsibly and without fear in real-life emergencies.
- Encouragement to foster a more empathetic and proactive youth community.
- Improvement in students' public speaking and critical thinking abilities.

Feedback:

Feedback collected from participants and attendees reflected the success and impact of the event:

- Participants shared that the competition boosted their confidence and helped them understand the practical aspects of legal and emergency protocols.
- Audience members expressed appreciation for the topic, stating that it was informative, socially relevant, and thought-provoking.
- Many students suggested that similar awareness events be organised more frequently to keep civic engagement alive on campus.
- Faculty members praised the depth of research and passion reflected in the students' speeches.

Conclusion:

The declamation competition proved to be a meaningful platform for learning, expression, and awareness. With the participation of 54 attentive students, the event highlighted a critical social issue and inspired a culture of compassion, courage, and informed action among the youth.
