

Report on Valedictory Ceremony and Prize Distribution

Date: 20th March 2025

Organised by: Road Safety Club

Venue: Room no. 4, GDC Nankhari

No. of Beneficiaries: 60

Introduction:

The Road Safety Club successfully concluded its activities for the academic session 2024–2025 with a Valedictory Ceremony and Prize Distribution on March 20, 2025. The event celebrated the club's achievements over the year and recognised the dedication of students and coordinators who actively contributed to raising awareness about road safety.

Event Highlights:

The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome of the esteemed Principal, Dr. Poonam Mehta, faculty members and participating students by the Road Safety Club Coordinator Prpf. Punita Verma. A sense of pride and accomplishment marked the event as the club reflected on a year filled with impactful initiatives.

Principal's Address:

Dr. Poonam Mehta delivered an inspiring address, commending the Road Safety Club for its unwavering commitment to promoting road safety awareness among students and the community. She emphasised the growing concern of rising road accidents in the country and stressed the need for persistent efforts at the grassroots level to inculcate safe road behavior.

She applauded the club's diverse range of activities — from awareness rallies and trainings to competitions and street plays — all of which effectively engaged youth and the public in vital conversations about road safety.

Prize Distribution:

As part of the celebration, winners of various competitions organised throughout the year were felicitated. These competitions included:

- Road Safety Poster Making
- Slogan Writing
- Rangoli Making
- Declamation Competitions
- Nukkad Natak (Street Play) and Awareness Rally

Dr. Poonam Mehta distributed certificates, medals, and trophies to the winners, acknowledging their creativity, awareness, and commitment to the cause.

Each awardee received a round of applause, creating an atmosphere of joy and encouragement. The recognition not only honoured their efforts but also motivated others to participate in similar causes in the future.

Achievements of the Road Safety Club (2024–25):

- Conducted multiple awareness campaigns and outreach programs
- Engaged with the local community through interactive events
- Organized competitions to inspire creative expression around road safety
- Fostered a sense of social responsibility among students

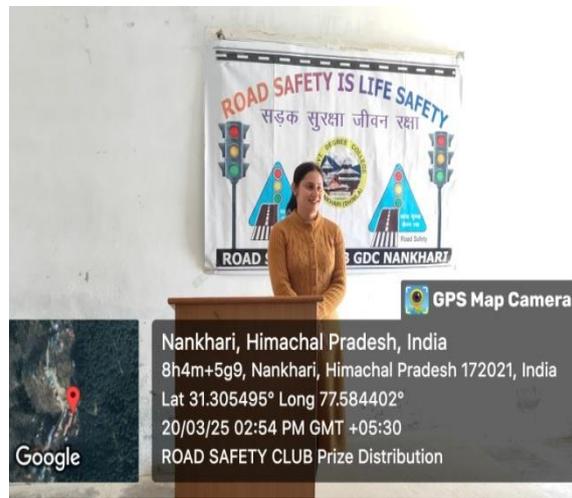

Through these activities, the club provided a platform for young individuals to emerge as informed and responsible citizens who contributed proactively to making roads safer.

Conclusion:

The Valedictory Ceremony and Prize Distribution was a fitting end to a productive and inspiring academic year for the Road Safety Club. The event not only celebrated the past year's achievements but also laid the foundation for future endeavors. The unwavering dedication of students, the support of faculty, and the visionary leadership of the Principal have collectively ensured that the Road Safety Club continues to be a beacon of social awareness and community engagement.
