Venue: College Campus

Name of the event: Rangoli Making Competition

Organised by: Road Safety Club of the College

No. of Participants: 21

Introduction

The college's Road Safety Cell organised a rangoli-making competition on 14 February 2025. The competition was themed "Sadak Suraksha Jeevan Raksha," aligning with the cell's mission of spreading awareness about road safety. The event aimed to highlight the alarming increase in road accident cases and the common negligent behaviours contributing to them, such as drunk driving, using mobile phones while driving, and reckless driving.

Event Proceedings

The event commenced at 11:00 AM, with participants assembling in four teams. Each team engaged in brainstorming sessions to conceptualise creative and impactful rangoli designs. Afterwards, designated spaces were allotted across the campus where the participants could visually depict their messages through vibrant rangolis.

Rangoli Themes & Messages

The participants displayed immense creativity and awareness through their rangolis, illustrating:

- Various road signs and traffic lights
- Traffic rules and safety measures
- Slogans promoting cautious driving
- Depictions of road accidents and their consequences

The artistic expressions effectively conveyed the importance of responsible driving and how following basic traffic regulations can save lives. The Road Safety Club members actively participated, showcasing their talent in creating rangolis that left a strong visual impact on the audience.

Winning Team

Among the various teams, Group 3 emerged as the winner. The team members included:

- Bavita (BA 3rd Year)
- Sonika (BA 3rd Year)
- Tamanna (BCom 3rd Year)
- Sakshi (BA 1st Year)

Their rangoli effectively conveyed, "Do not use mobile phones while driving." It incorporated significant road safety elements such as traffic rules, cautionary signs, and a visual representation of the dangers of distracted driving. The clarity of their theme and artistic execution made their rangoli stand out.

Conclusion & Refreshments

The event concluded on a joyful note, with participants gathering for refreshments. The participants expressed their satisfaction and happiness in being part of an event that blended creativity with a meaningful cause. The competition raised awareness about road safety while fostering student teamwork and artistic expression.

The Road Safety Cell thanked all participants, faculty members, and organisers for their efforts in making the event a success. It was a memorable initiative that emphasised the need for responsible driving to ensure a safer future on the roads.
