

Date: 31/12/2024

Venue: College Campus

Name of the event: Slogan Writing Competition

Organised by: Road Safety Club of the College

No. of Participants: 25

Introduction

The Road Safety Cell of our college organised a Slogan-Writing Competition to raise awareness about road safety, focusing on reducing road accidents and road rage. Based on the theme "Sadak Suraksha, Jeevan Raksha" (Road Safety, Life Protection), the competition encouraged students to create impactful and informative slogans. A total of 25 participants took part in the event, showcasing their creativity and delivering the slogans in a collective chorus.

Objectives

- Raise Awareness: Promote the importance of road safety and following traffic rules.
- Foster Creativity: Provide a platform for students to express their ideas through slogans.
- Engage Students: Encourage active participation in spreading road safety messages.

Event Overview

The event saw 25 Road Safety Volunteers creating and presenting their slogans, focusing on themes like obeying traffic rules, avoiding road rage, and practising safe driving. After presenting their slogans, all participants chanted them in chorus, enhancing the event's impact.

Key Highlights

- Creative Slogans: Participants presented catchy, memorable slogans such as:
 - "Drive Safely, Arrive Safely."
 - "Speed Thrills, But Kills."
 - "Safety First, Life Always."
- Chorus Chanting: The collective chanting of slogans created unity and reinforced the road safety message.
- Public Display: The slogans were displayed on campus to spread awareness further.

Feedback

Participants expressed positive feedback, appreciating the opportunity to engage creatively while addressing an important social issue. Many suggested organising more such events to foster creativity and encourage critical thinking about societal challenges like road safety.

Conclusion

The Slogan-Writing Competition effectively raised awareness about road safety while providing a platform for creative expression. The positive feedback indicates that such events are valuable for spreading crucial messages and encouraging student participation in social causes.

Recommendations

- Organize More Events: Similar competitions should be held regularly to maintain awareness.
- Workshops: Consider including workshops on road safety to complement creative activities.
- Wider Participation: Encourage more department students to participate in future events.
