

Report on International Women's Day Celebration at Government College Nankhari

Date: 8th March 2025

Number of Beneficiaries: 46

Venue: College Campus and CHC Nankhari

On 8th March 2025, the Women's Cell of Government College Nankhari organised a grand celebration to mark International Women's Day. Students, faculty, and staff attended the event, making it a memorable occasion filled with inspiration, learning, and community service.

The celebration featured several competitions, the most prominent of which were the speech competition and the bookmark creation contest. These activities were designed to highlight the significance of women's contributions in various spheres of life, focusing on this year's International Women's Day theme: "Accelerate Action."

Declamation and Bookmarks Making Competition

The declamation competition was a key part of the event, where students spoke passionately about women's empowerment, equality, and the pressing need for accelerated action to ensure women's rights and development. The speeches resonated with the theme, emphasizing women's crucial role in society and the progress of the economy. The students shared thought-provoking ideas on how to accelerate action in advancing women's participation and leadership in all sectors of life. Tamanna (B.Com. 3rd Year) won the first prize in the declamation competition.

Alongside the declamation competition, a Bookmarks making Competition was also organised, offering students an opportunity to showcase their creativity and artistic skills while highlighting the theme of International Women's Day. The bookmarks created by the students featured empowering messages and vibrant designs that celebrated women's achievements and the ongoing struggle for gender equality. The competition encouraged students to reflect on the significance of women's contributions through visual art and creative expression. Riya (BA 1st Year) won the first prize in the Bookmark Making Competition...

Keynote Address by Faculty Members

The event also featured speeches from faculty members who contributed valuable insights on the status of women in society. Assistant Professor Punita Verma, who was also the event's host, commended the remarkable achievements of women in various fields, particularly in the social and economic sectors. She stressed the importance of recognizing and celebrating women's contributions, highlighting the need for continued efforts to support and uplift women across all levels of society.

Assistant Professor Dev Kumar also delivered a poignant address, focusing on women's current status. He elaborated on the contributions of both men and women in society and highlighted women's evolving role as they continue to step forward with strength and independence. His views on gender equality and the importance of creating an inclusive society were widely appreciated by all attendees.

Health Initiative - Blood Testing and Iron Supplementation

In addition to the academic and cultural activities, the Women's Cell also organized a health initiative for the college students. In collaboration with the nearby Community Health Centre (CHC) Nankhari, students were offered free blood testing. The testing was important in raising awareness about women's health and well-being. In line with the health checkup, iron tablets were distributed to students, emphasizing the importance of nutrition and health in women's overall empowerment.

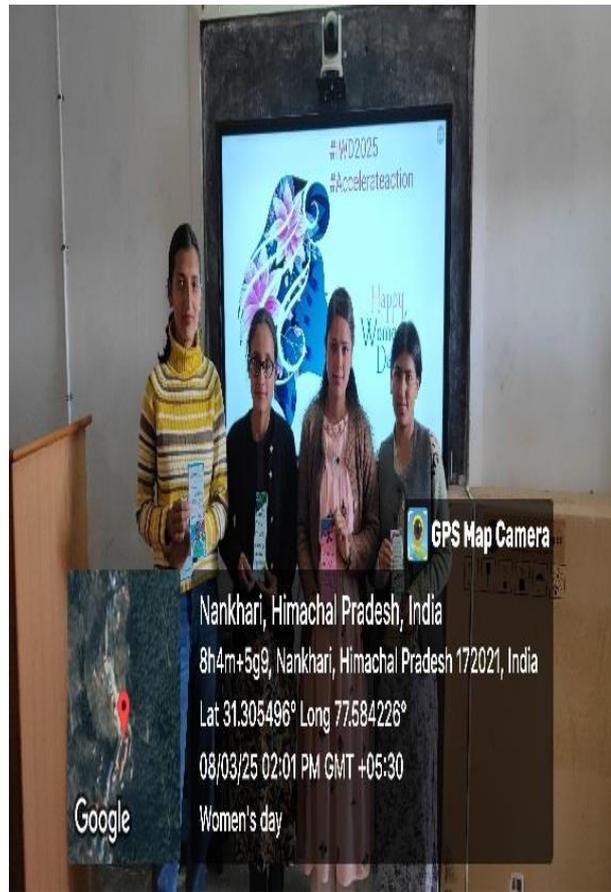

The International Women's Day celebration at Government College Nankhari was a resounding success, marked by insightful discussions, engaging activities, and a strong sense of community. Through the speech competition, informative talks by faculty, and health initiatives, the event highlighted the importance of both accelerating action for women's rights and supporting their health and well-being. The college continues to foster an environment where women's empowerment and equality are celebrated and pursued with vigor. The event not only honored the achievements of women but also encouraged all attendees to reflect on the ongoing journey toward gender equality.
