Organised by: Career Counselling and Placement Cell of the College

Resource Person: Prof. Vishal Rangta (Currently working as Assistant Professor in English at Centre of Excellence College, Sanjauli, Shimla)

No of Beneficiaries:43

Objectives of the Session

The main goal of this invited lecture was to inform students about the diverse career opportunities available after graduation. The session sought to:

- Offer insights into industries that value language expertise.
- Showcase opportunities for further education and professional growth.
- Explore emerging fields such as translation, interpretation, and content creation.
- Encourage students to consider non-traditional career paths in languages.

Content of the Session

The lecture covered a wide range of career possibilities and practical guidance, including:

- Academic and Research Careers: Positions in teaching, advanced studies, and linguistic research.
- Translation and Interpretation: Career opportunities in professional translation services, government bodies, embassies, and international organisations.
- Content Creation and Editing: Roles in fields such as journalism, publishing, copywriting, and digital media.
- Corporate and Business Roles: Jobs requiring multilingual communication, international relations, customer service, and corporate training.
- Cultural Exchange Programs: Careers in cultural institutions, tourism, or involvement in international student exchange programs.
- Freelance Opportunities: Exploring freelance work as translators, content creators, language instructors, and more.
- Government and Public Sector Roles: Opportunities for civil services, diplomacy, and policy development.

Outcomes of the Session

By the conclusion of the session, participants were able to:

- Recognize the wide array of career options available to language graduates.
- Acquire knowledge about the skills and qualifications necessary for various career paths.
- Gain a deeper understanding of how language expertise can be applied across different industries.
- Feel inspired and confident to explore non-traditional career avenues.
- Receive practical advice on creating a strong portfolio and pursuing internships.

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating by asking questions and discussing career options that matched their interests. The lecture effectively expanded their understanding of career opportunities beyond conventional roles, encouraging them to explore paths aligned with their passion for languages.

Feedback and Suggestions

The participants provided positive feedback, appreciating the insights offered and expressing a desire for similar sessions focusing on sectors like media, diplomacy, and digital marketing.
