1. Objectives of the Session

The seminar was organised to sensitise students to the growing importance of skill development in today's rapidly evolving professional landscape. The specific objectives of the session were:

- To introduce students to the key soft and practical skills required for employability.
- To help students understand the link between skill development and career advancement.
- To promote awareness about the significance of continuous learning and personal growth.
- To encourage students to pursue entrepreneurial paths with the right skill sets.
- To inspire students to become self-reliant and future-ready professionals.

2. Content of the Session

The seminar was led by Mr. Prakash Dogra and Mr. Aryan Raj, experts from the Leadership Institute Management Technology, Rampur Bushahr. The session covered a wide range of topics:

- Introduction to Skill Development: Understanding what skill development entails in the 21st-century job market.
- Essential Employability Skills: Focused discussion on communication, teamwork, leadership, critical thinking, adaptability, and digital literacy.
- Entrepreneurial Skills: Insights on how these skills are also crucial for those aiming to launch their ventures.
- Real-life Success Stories: Sharing of practical examples where skill development led to personal and professional transformation.
- Interactive Engagement: Activities and Q&A rounds that encouraged students to think critically about their own skill sets and career goals.

3. Outcomes of the Session

The seminar proved to be highly beneficial for the student community, with the following outcomes:

- Enhanced Awareness: Students gained a clearer understanding of the skills needed to thrive in modern workplaces.
- Career Clarity: Many participants reported feeling more confident and informed about how to align their education with industry demands.
- Motivation for Self-Improvement: The stories and examples shared by the speakers inspired students to take initiative in upgrading their own skill sets.
- Interest in Lifelong Learning: The session sparked an interest among students in enrolling in additional training or certification courses.
- Boost in Entrepreneurial Thinking: Some students expressed interest in exploring entrepreneurship as a viable career path.

4. Feedback and Suggestions

Feedback from Students:

- The session was described as “eye-opening,” “practical,” and “highly motivational.”
- Students appreciated the approachable and engaging style of both speakers.
- Many requested more such sessions focused on specific skill areas such as digital tools, public speaking, and interview preparation.

Conclusion

The seminar on skill development, organised by the CCPC in collaboration with Leadership Institute Management Technology, Rampur Bushahr, was a highly successful initiative. It played a crucial role in broadening students’ horizons and preparing them for the demands of the modern workforce. The event not only delivered practical knowledge but also instilled a mindset of continuous self-improvement among the participants. The college looks forward to conducting more sessions like this in the future to empower its students further.
